BISAC: Education / Curricula

The CopyWorkBook series from Blue Sky Daisies makes it easy to add a little copywork to your school schedule. The CopyWorkBook: Comedies of William Shakespeare includes quotes and selections from each of Shakespeare's comedy plays. Lines are provided for students to copy the quotation using the penmanship style of their choice. Copywork is more than penmanship practice, however. Copying the words of Shakespeare trains the ear for the melody of beautiful English, the mind for the contemplation of reasoned rhetoric, and the heart for the language of love-to say nothing of the soul for wit.

Black & White on White Paper
160 pages
Blue Sky Daisies
ISBN-13: 978-0990552963
BISAC: Juvenile Nonfiction / People & Places / General

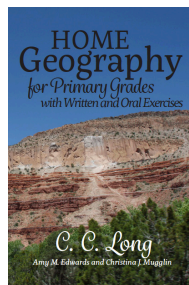

Elementary Geography was originally written by educator Charlotte Mason in the 1880s, yet this beloved book for elementary-aged students still garners attention today. Blue Sky Daisies brings you the same classic book, completely re-typeset in a pleasing and fresh format. Miss Mason's conversational tone teaches children about their world, from its place in the solar system to their place in its lands. Elementary Geography also includes over a dozen poetry selections throughout the book, chosen by Miss Mason to complement the chapter topics.

Discover the planets and Earth's continents, the changing seasons, latitude and longitude, map-making, topographical features such as mountains and valleys, rivers and straits, and more.

Elementary Geography is often paired with Blue Sky Daisies' edition of Home Geography for Primary Grades with Written and Oral Exercises, by C. C. Long.

ISBN-13: 978-1944435035
BISAC: Juvenile Nonfiction / People & Places / General

This classic geography book for elementary age students is newly popular again. Blue Sky Daisies brings you the same classic book, completely re-typeset in a pleasing and fresh format with additional new teaching aids and enrichment activities. Home Geography for Primary Grades, originally published in 1894, teaches children the timeless geography of the world around them. In charming and conversational prose, C. C. Long teaches the fundamentals of geography.

- Navigation, directions, and the compass
- Hills, mountains, and valleys
- The water cycle, weather, rivers and streams
- Maps and forms of land and water
- Flora and fauna
- Resources found in the earth
- People living and working

Throughout the book, teachers will find helpful writing assignments meant to help students narrate back the ideas they learned in the chapter. Oral exercises give discussion prompts.

This book can be read aloud and discussed together, or assigned to independent readers followed by discussion.

BISAC: Juvenile Nonfiction / Biography & Autobiography /
Women

Author Lanaya Gore and illustrator Twila Farmer have brought the story of Charlotte Mason and her educational ideas to life in this vibrant, beautiful picture book. The seemingly ordinary teacher living in Victorian England inspired an extraordinary movement in education, first in her own time, and now in ours. Untold numbers of children around the world are learning according to Charlotte Mason's philosophy, both at home and in classrooms. Twila Farmer's breathtaking paintings and Lanaya Gore's engaging prose together tell the story of the woman who devoted herself to bringing worlds of wonder to children—children whom she insisted were persons of worth and potential—through a generous feast of living books and the natural world.

The Reign of Queen Victoria

BISAC: Juvenile Nonfiction / History /
Europe

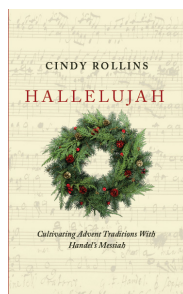

The original classic history book by M. B. Syngé is now available in this reprint edition from Blue Sky Daisies. Completely re-typeset and annotated, Syngé's survey of the Victorian Era covers major events in the British Empire from the Accession of Queen Victoria in 1837 to her death in 1901. The British Empire vastly expanded during Victoria's long reign. Syngé gives 21st century readers the perspective of a British historian (Fellow, Royal Historical Society) reflecting on this era just as the Great War was upending the world. Originally published in 1919; now available with additional annotations from Blue Sky Daisies.

Devotional: Advent & Lent

Devotional

Family traditions become established, sometimes quite by accident and sometimes because "we've always done it that way." But the best family traditions are thoughtfully cultivated. With Hallelujah: Cultivating Advent Traditions With Handel's Messiah, Cindy Rollins leads the way in building a rich Advent tradition for you and your family.

Inside you will find:

- Weekly Scripture passages, hymns, and poems
- Daily Messiah listening schedule with background information from Greg Wilbur
- An overview of the church calendar by Thomas Banks
- Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany recipes, and
- Suggestions for celebrating the Advent feasts of St. Nicholas and St. Lucia.

Cindy also invited four of her friends to share how they celebrate Advent with their own families.

Lord, Have Mercy: Discovering Jesus in the Days Before Easter

BISAC: Christian Books & Bibles /
Christian Living

Lord, Have Mercy: Discovering Jesus in the Days Before Easter is a unique family devotional guide for Lent that can help you make Easter what it should be, the Christian's most treasured holiday. With forty days of devotions centered on discovering Jesus, Lord, Have Mercy will lead your family to the cross as you discuss Jesus' humanity, his divinity, his miracles, his glory, his fulfillment of prophecy, and his gift of salvation. Each day's devotion provides a question-and-answer discussion about the Bible reading so that you can easily lead an engaging discussion of God's Word. With questions geared toward both young and old, all family members will be able to participate in a lively and interactive conversation about the Scriptures.

By God's grace your eyes will be opened to the wonders of God's mercy that are given to us in Jesus Christ.
